

Our cantina patio will have a picturesque ambiance. It will be real, yet not too real to feel chaotic. We will incorporate elements of these places to create a cinematic setting where our Latino audience can engage and enjoy themselves. It will feel natural and beautiful.

The textured terracotta walls will be a signature of this Latin space, adorned with Mexican banners, tiny colored bulbs, and plants. Colorful tables and chairs will be scattered around, some of which will be occupied by patrons.